happens.

AyaFwri-chan is sick and stuck in bed.

However... did you know?

I had no choice...

Lots of them.

I feel like I'm going to lose myself just in that smell.

During these times I'm sensitive to the smell of the blood of my bride.

I'm not like a normal human.

And yet, my heart has been pounding ever since I arrived here.

Ayafuji isn't well,

I have to nurse her.

Anyway, let's have some tea ...

I at least wanted to thank her for coming to take care of me,

even though she only came because of the limitation.

How do you cook these?

*Package Easy to cook!

You literally just have to heat them up!

She's that bad?!

You heat them up with hot water or microwave them.

...!!

She bit you so hard that she got sick, huh?

Eh? This time Senpai is sick!?

The next day.

What an incredible trainwreck.
